MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief,
FROM: Chief, Supply Division, OL
SUBJECT: Employee Suggestion Program

Logistics

25X1

1. GENERAL

This memorandum prescribes policy, procedures, and responsibilities in the establishment and administration of an Employee Suggestion Program.

2. POLICY

- a. This Office encourages employee participation in the Employee Suggestion Program and provides monetary awards in recognition of approved suggestions for improvements in the fields of efficiency, inventions, security, working conditions, safety, morale, and procedures. No award may be made, however, to any employee for a suggestion where the responsibility for the design and implementation of improvements represent a part of the normal requirements of the duties of his position.
- b. All employees shall be eligible to receive awards under the Suggestion Program outlined herein. An employee serving on the Employee Suggestion Panel will absent himself from the panel whenever a suggestion he originated is being considered.
- c. Security considerations dictate limits to overt forms of recognition; consequently, awards will be granted in a manner consistent with normal security practices and special security considerations.

3. MONETARY AWARDS

- a. By law, monetary awards generally may not exceed $5,000. Within this limitation, monetary awards will be granted for tangible and intangible benefits. (See Attachments 1 and 2 for use as a guide in recommending the amount of an award.)
- b. If an employee submits a suggestion which is considered to have applicability to other departments of the Government, an inter-departmental award may be granted based upon the adoption of its use by other Government departments.

4. NON-MONETARY RECOGNITION

Upon headquarters approval, recognition in the form of a letter of appreciation for improvements outlined in 2a may be granted where circumstances are warranted, and this type of recognition is determined to be more appropriate than a monetary award.

5. RESPONSIBILITIES

- a. The Chief, Supply Division shall be responsible for:
  - (1) Serving as the sole point of contact for communications directed to or from the
  - (2) Designating an Employee Suggestion Panel to consist of not less than three (3) qualified depot employees.
  - (3) Appointing a Chairman of the Employee Suggestion Panel.
  - (4) Providing an endorsement for each evaluation received and forwarding the suggestion file to the Headquarters Suggestion Awards Committee for approval or disapproval.

- Extended Application - Applicable to several installations or facilities, or is in the public interest in several localities or in a region.
- Broad Application - Applicable to many installations or facilities, or is in the public interest in several regions. May be applicable to all of a small independent agency or to an entire large bureau or constituent agency.
- General Application - Applicable throughout several large bureaus or independent agencies or a large Department or several Departments, or is in the public interest throughout the Nation or beyond.

It is well to note that because of the nature of intangible benefits, no guide can be so conclusive as to make the determination of appropriate awards an automatic and simple process. The final determination must still be arrived at by the application of your informed judgment, which should consider all influencing factors.
